Organization Contribution Request

Requesting organization: Kotzebue Fire Department (City of Kotzebue)

Amount requesting: $150,000

Purpose:

To aid in Kotzebue Fire Department's mission to provide high quality emergency services to borough residents.

Brief Description:

Kotzebue Fire Department is a mixed professional/volunteer fire department that provides emergency services in the Kotzebue area. These services include emergency medicine, fire suppression, hazardous materials mitigation, ice rescue, water rescue, dive rescue/recovery, as well as other public assist services. The NWAB's contribution will allow Kotzebue Fire Department to continue to provide these services to residents of the Borough through adequate training, equipment, and staffing, and to do so with a high level of efficacy and professionalism. KFD receives over 1,000 calls for service annually, over 99% of these are serving Borough residents directly, a large portion serving individuals from the Borough's villages outside of Kotzebue.

Organizations 2023 operating budget:

$1,493,891 (+/-, final Council approval will be November 2022)

Identification of other sources of contributions:

Aside from the City of Kotzebue, Maniilaq is the largest contributor to the success and quality of KFD, NANA has contributed historically, the Kotzebue volunteers have received monetary support through fundraisers and community events, and the NWAB has supported the Kotzebue Fire Dept. through this contribution.

Evidence of Qualifying Status:

The NWAB has contributed this amount in this manner to the Kotzebue Fire Department in prior years.
