MUNICIPAL EXEMPTION STATEMENT

Who should file an Exemption Statement?

If you are a candidate for municipal office and you believe that your campaign will not raise or spend more than $5,000 (including personal money) during the entire municipal election, you should consider filing an Exemption Statement.

Why?

Municipal candidates who file an Exemption Statement with the Commission are not required to file campaign disclosure reports during the campaign (including the registration, the 30-day pre-election, 7-day pre-election and year-end report or 24-hour reports).

Do I have to comply with other campaign disclosure restrictions?

Yes. Although the Exemption Statement exempts you from filing reports, you are still subject to the campaign disclosure law. For example, you may not accept contributions from corporations or unions; contribution limits on amount and timing still apply; you must use campaign money for election-related purposes only.

What if I file an Exemption Statement then receive or spend more than $5,000?

If your campaign unexpectedly exceeds $5,000 during the campaign, you must immediately begin filing the required campaign disclosure reports starting with the first report due after the campaign exceeds $5,000. The first report must include all contributions and expense activity for your entire campaign from the beginning through the end of the current reporting period. Failure to do so could result in civil and criminal penalties.
